Social Verismo

Jerry Ross

Class ID #1191

"Social verismo" refers to an art movement inspired by social issues such as civil rights, feminism, and environmental rights. This subject matter combined with the aesthetic principle of "the loose brush" technique allows the artist to depict figures in action. Students are free to use any media and will receive individual and group instruction from Jerry Ross. Ross's recent study of the "I Macchiaioli" painters of Italy and extensive travel to Italy is reflected in his teaching style and intended to bring out each student's loose and uninhibited style.

Wednesdays, September 28-November 16 6pm-9pm

Members $75 Non-Members $90
